

MESSAGE FROM THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
TO HER BELOVED DAUGHTER LIGHT OF MARY
JANUARY 31, 2010

Beloved children of My Immaculate Heart:

I love you and intercede constantly for each one of you.

You continue on the path, in the midst of the harsh sun of the mundane which little by little secretly intrudes into the heart of those who are Mine, with the end of distancing you from the true path.

This harshness that enters the human heart is the work of satan to desensitize every human being and in this way lead you to see one another with lack of affection, to see your brother or sister as an enemy, as nothing, to live with egoism so that love is eliminated from the human being. In this manner, the enemy of humanity will have the great opportunity he has waited for and through deception encourage man to fight for personal survival without fear of causing others harm.

Beloved children: when love is exiled, man falls to his lowest instincts; when love is exiled, man is left at the mercy of satan, this is the reason for which today, once again, I call you to not allow LOVE to become distanced from your being; love towards God and neighbor must prevail today more than at any another moment, because satan has prepared his legions to act against humanity, with deceptions.

This is the time that has been announced, this is the time in which man's enemy is throwing his poisonous darts to make your heart ill, blind you and present himself as the great savior, the awaited one, before a confused humanity, because it has expelled God from its heart.

The events of nature cause pain and death, hopelessness and distrust; this is and will be used by the enemy to get rid of the faith in the Divine Mercy, getting man to easily forget that We have beseeched a change in behavior. My Son has called you to Consecrate yourselves to My Heart, so that in this way you allow Me to guide you like the Mother that I am, of each one of you.

Little children: you are living what has been announced, and already hopelessness reigns in the being of a great majority of My children. This is the moment in which you must reaffirm yourselves in faith, trust in the Divine Mercy, in the Divine Omnipotence; trust that a Father does not abandon His own, but at the same time, the children must seek the Father.

Little children: turn to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, turn to the Eucharistic nourishment, so faith does not deteriorate but is strengthened; turn to this Mother who loves you, ask for the protection of your companions the Angels, ask for the intercession of the Saints, constantly invoke GOD'S HOLY NAME; live a true life in communion with My Son, so that the enemy does not make you easy prey.

Beloved of My Heart: do not remain dazed by the mundane, make a stop on the path and see the signs that Heaven sends you; see how nature is not the same, how it has changed, announcing to man that difficult moments approach for all of humanity, and with so much frequency, that you will not have time to help one another.

Beloved: invoke the NAME OF GOD, and nourish yourselves with the Eucharistic Bread; feed yourselves with the Body and Blood of My Son, that way you will not stagger. Remain firm in faith and pray continually. The life of each one of you must be prayer, not only personal but for your fellow human beings, for those who will soon suffer nature's attacks, for those who give themselves over into the hands of evil.

Oh humanity, oh humanity! You do not listen to this Mother's outcry!

You, children, who live interceding for your brothers and sisters do not decline in prayer, increase it with worldwide chains of the Holy Rosary, so that this clamor rises up to the Throne of the Most Holy Trinity and repairs the offenses that man commits against his Creator.

Do not fear, your Mother is here, and I intercede for each one of you.

I love you.

Mother Mary.
